a scheme for the sewerage of such group of premises in accordance with the following provisions.

- (2) In every such case the Board shall cause to be prepared
  - (a) plans showing the premises affected, and the nature and extent of the necessary works;
  - (b) a schedule of the premises and names of the owners thereof as can be ascertained;
  - (c) an estimate of the cost of the work that is, in the opinion of the Board, necessary for carrying such scheme into effect;
  - (d) a provisional apportionment of such cost amongst the owners affected in such proportion as may seem to the Board to be most equitable having regard to the greater or less degree of benefit to be derived by the premises from any work so undertaken.
- (3) The Board shall cause written notice in Sinhala, Tamil and English to be given to the owners of all the premises to be seweraged, of the intention to cause the proposed works to be done in accordance with the provisions of this section, either by serving it, upon them personally, or by leaving it at their respective residences or places of business, or by posting registered letters addressed to them at their residence or places of business.
- (4) During one month from the date of service of written notice the above-mentioned particulars or certified copies thereof shall be kept deposited at the Board office and shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times.
- (5) During the said month the owner of any such premises may, by written notice served on the Board, object to the proposals on any of the following grounds, that is to say:-
  - (a) that the proposed works are insufficient or unnecessary or are not required in pursuance of this Law;
  - (b) that the estimated cost of the work is excessive;
  - (c) that the provisional apportionment of such cost is incorrect in some matter of fact to be specified in the objection;
  - (d) that any premises should be excluded from or included in the proposals;
  - (e) that there has been some material informality, defect or error in respect of the notices, plans or estimates;
  - (f) that any compensation to be paid is excessive or insufficient.

- (6) The Board shall consider and determine the objections and its decisions thereon shall be final.
- (7) In any case where no such objections have been raised or in any case where such objections have been raised and have been determined by the Board, the Board may give orders for the sewerage of the premises in accordance with the scheme, and if it considers it expedient may
- (a) proceed to execute, by contract or otherwise, all or any of the works necessary for carrying into effect the scheme mentioned in subsection (1) of this section ; or
- (b) by notice in writing, require all or any of the owners to provide and execute, within such time as may be specified in the notice, all or any of the works that may be required to be done in or exclusively for the sewerage of the premises.
- (8) The Board may recover in equal proportions from the owners of all or any of the premises included in any scheme prepared under this section a reasonable sum as expenses for surveys and preparation of plans.
- (9) When the Board has completed the execution of any works under this section and the expenses thereof have been ascertained, a final apportionment shall be made in similar manner to the provisional apportionment and the expenses recovered.
- (10) The cost of the maintenance of the system of sewerage made under such scheme as aforesaid shall be borne equally by the owners of the premises affected by -such scheme.
- (11) Every owner who fails or neglects to comply with the requirements of any notice served on him under subsection (7) (b) within the time specified in the notice, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction after trial before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.
49. (1) When it appears to the Board that the Board that the only or best practicable means by which a sewer required for the sewerage of any premises can be emptied into any sewer or other fit place into which a sewer may lawfully be discharged is by carrying the same into, through or under any land belonging to some person other than the owner of the said premises, the Board after giving the owner of the said land a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection, may, if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised appears to the Board invalid or insufficient, by an order in writing authorize the owner of the said premises to carry his sewer into, through, or under the said land in such manner as the Board shall think it fit to allow.
- Right to carry sewers through land belonging to other persons.

- (2) Every such order bearing the signature of the General Manager of the Board shall be complete authority to the person in whose favour it is made, or to any agent or person employed by him for that purpose, after giving the owner of such land reasonable written notice of his intention so to do, to enter upon the said land with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset and to execute the necessary work.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Law, the owner or occupier of any premises, or any agent or person employed by him for that purpose, may, after giving the owner of any land, wherein a sewer has already been lawfully constructed for the sewerage of such premises, reasonable written notice of his intention so to do, enter upon the said land with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset for the purpose of repairing or cleansing such sewer.
- (4) In executing any work under this section as little damage as possible shall be done; and the owner or occupier of the premises for the benefit of which the work is done shall
  - (a) cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;
  - (b) fill in, reinstate, and make good at his own cost the land broken up for the purpose of executing the said work; and
  - (c) pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by the execution of the said work.
- (5) Every owner of land who refuses to permit or prevents without reasonable cause the execution of any work in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction after trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees; and every such owner who persists in such refusal or who continues to prevent the execution of such work after a conviction thereof shall be guilty of a continuing offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees for each day during which the offence is continued.
- (6) When the owner of any land, into, through or under which a sewer has been carried under this section while such land is unbuilt upon, desires at any time afterwards to erect a building on such land, the Board shall, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of the premises for the benefit of which such sewer was constructed to close, remove, divert, reconstruct, or protect the same in such manner as may' be approved by the Board and to fill in, make good, and reinstate the land;

Provided that no such requisition shall be made unless, in the opinion of the Board, it is necessary or expedient, in order to admit of the construction of the proposed building or the safe enjoyment of the; same, that the sewer should be closed, removed, diverted, reconstructed or protected.

(7) Every owner or occupier who refuses to comply with the requirements of any notice served on him under subsection (6) within a reasonable time, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction after trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

50. (1) Where it appears to the Board that the only or best practicable means, by which a sewer required for the sewerage of any premises can be emptied into any sewer or other fit place into which sewers may lawfully be discharged is through a sewer belonging to some person or persons other than the owner of the said premises, the Board after giving the said person or persons a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection thereto, may, if no objection is raised, or if any objection which is raised appears to the Board invalid or insufficient, by an order in writing, authorize the said owner to use the last-mentioned sewer, or declare him to be a joint owner or one of the joint owners thereof, on such conditions as to the payment of rent or compensation, and as connecting the sewer of the said premises with such other sewer as aforesaid, and as to the respective responsibilities of the parties for maintaining, flushing, cleansing and emptying such last-mentioned sewer or otherwise as may appear to the Board equitable.

Right of owners to joint use of sewers.

(2) Every such order bearing the signature of the General Manager of the Board shall be a complete authority to the person in whose favour it is made, or to any agent or person employed by him for that purpose, after fulfilling the conditions of the said order, and after giving the owner or owners of the sewer reasonable notice in writing of his intention so to do, to enter upon the land in which such sewer is situated with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset and subject to the provisions of this Law, to do all such things as may be for-

(a) connecting the two sewers;

(b) renewing, altering, or repairing the connection; and

- (c) discharging any responsibility attaching to the person in whose favour the Board's order is made for maintaining, flushing, cleansing or emptying the sewer or any part thereof.
- (3) In executing any work under this section as little damage as possible shall be done, and the person in whose favour the Board's order is made shall-
- (a) cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;
  - (b) fill in, reinstate, and make good at his own cost the land broken up, or repair and make good any damage to buildings occasioned by the execution of the said work; and
  - (c) pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by the execution of, the said work.
- (4) Every owner or occupier of any premises who refuses without reasonable cause, to permit, or prevents the execution of any work in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction after trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees; and every such owner or occupier who persists in such refusal or who continues to prevent the execution of such work after a conviction thereof shall be guilty of a continuing offence and shall, on conviction as aforesaid, be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees for each day during which the offence is continued.
51. (1) Every sewer and every fixture or appliance connected therewith shall, from time to time, be repaired, flushed, cleansed, and cleared by the owner or occupier of the premises within which such sewer may be situated. Maintenance and repair of sewer.
- (2) The Board may, by notice in writing, served on the owner or occupier of such premises, require such owner or occupier within such time as may be specified in the notice, to repair, flush, cleanse or clear such sewer, fixture or appliance.
- (3) The Board may, if the requirements of such notice are not complied with, or if the Board receives an application from the said owner or occupier so to do, or if the Board deems immediate action is necessary, repair, flush, cleanse, or clear such sewer, fixture, or appliance, and the expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the said owner or occupier and, in case, of default, shall be recoverable as a sewerage charge.
- (4) The owner of any premises in which; sewers, fixtures and appliances connected therewith are provided for the common use of the occupiers of such premises shall make such provision and take such measures as may be necessary for keeping such sewers, fixtures and appliances in a proper sanitary condition. Every such owner who, after due notice in writing in that behalf for the Board, fails to make such provision or to take such measures as the Board may think fit, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction after trial before a Magistrate to £ fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

- (5) Where any sewer, not being a sewer vested in the Board, or any fixture or appliance is provided for the benefit of more premises than one, the Board may, in pursuance of the provisions of this section, by notice in writing, require the owners or occupiers of such premises, within such time as may be specified in the notice, to execute all or any of the works aforesaid, and the Board may, either in default of compliance with the requirements of such notice, or without such notice if the Board deems necessary, execute all or any of such works and recover the expenses of so doing from the said owners or occupiers in such proportions as it may deem just.
- (6) Every owner or occupier who fails or neglects to comply with the requirements of any notice served on him under subsection (2) or subsection (5) within the time specified in the notice shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction after trial before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

52. (1) Where, in the opinion of the Board-

- (a) any sewers or any fixtures and appliances connected therewith provided for the sewerage of any premises are defective or in a condition injurious to health;
- (b) any such sewers or appliances are improperly connected to any public or other sewer; or
- (c) any such sewers are not provided with proper and sufficient traps, gullies, ventilating shafts, inspection chambers, or other such appliances,
